ASQ Re-Certification

When Re-certification is required for your particular ASQ Certificate, (CQT not required), follow the steps below :

1. ASQ Headquarters does not send the Recertification package anymore. ASQ will send you a reminder card approx 3-4 months prior to the expiry date of your certificate, and another reminder will follow prior to 3-4 weeks prior to the expiry date.
 2. You can download the Recertification Journal package from the ASQ website. Or, you can also contact the ASQ Headquarters and request to send you the package via snail mail.
 3. To download the Recertification Journal online, follow this link:
http://www.asq.org/certification/docs/recert_journal_app.pdf
 4. Complete the package in a timely manner, following the instructions provided in the Journal carefully.
 5. Compile copies of all the relevant documents, certifications, course accreditation's and any other appropriate documents you are using to verify your CU's. (Note: Do not include original documents in support of your claim for the RUs).
 6. Complete the application and denote method of payment. (Note: payment by credit card is preferred for quick processing).
 7. If paying by cheque (bank draft or money order), please include a stamped envelop (8 in x11.5 in) for US postage in the package.
 8. Contact and forward the completed package to the Hamilton Section Education & Certification Chair (Kris Krishnamoorthy). If you are unable to contact Kris Krishnamoorthy, please contact the Section Treasurer (Joe Drozd).
 9. Upon review, the package will be available to you for your records. If proper postage is included in the submission, it will be mailed to you.
 10. Accreditation from ASQ may take about 1 month after submission by the Re-certification Chair.
